PHOTOGRAPHER

ED SCHROEDER

A PASSION FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Ed Schroeder is a renowned South African photographer who is best known for his Nguni cattle, African landscapes and other animal images. He grew up in KwaZulu-Natal and comes from a long line of German missionaries. During his childhood he spent a great deal of time with the Zulu people who not only taught him their language but their appreciation for the land and their animals. This passion and understanding of his environment is evident in his work.

Ed will be exhibiting in Hyde Park Shopping Centre in Johannesburg from 1 to 7 November 2011 outside

Exclusive Books.
